

Important Disclosure Information – The following disclaimers are required to be covered during presentations or communications with prospects regarding the Program:

- No incomes are represented or guaranteed in any amount for any participant.
- Some Associates will earn no money at all in this Program.
- No person earns any income solely for enrolling others in the program.
- The only required purchase to participate in the program is an “at-cost” New Associate Business Development Kit.
- No purchase of Product is required for participation in the Program at any level.
- This program is not endorsed by any government agency.
- All examples are for hypothetical illustration and explanation purposes only.
- Any experience shared may be unique to the individuals sharing them and should not be taken as assurances of success for others. Results of participation may vary widely.